Purpose and Duties of the Board

The purpose of the library board is to govern the affairs of the public library in service to the community. This policy sets out the work of the library board and the ways in which the library board achieves is purpose.

Section 1: Purpose of the Board

The library board oversees the development of a comprehensive and efficient public library service by:

a) developing and expressing the library board's values
b) articulating mission, service priorities and long-term strategy
c) setting policies on governance and service
d) planning for further library development
e) delegating authority to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) for management of library operations
f) providing direction to the CEO through board motions, policies, and plans
g) providing feedback to the CEO through a performance appraisal process
h) securing the financial resources to achieve the intended results
i) exercising financial control
j) advocating for library service
k) evaluating results and assessing outcomes and impact

Section 2: Duties of the Entire Board

The library board governs effectively by:

a) setting an annual library board agenda that reflects current goals and strategic issues
b) working proactively and making decisions that focus on the library's future and place in the community representing the interests of the community
c) providing opportunities for board development and training
d) working effectively as a team
e) working collaboratively with the Library CEO and the Council
f) evaluating the board's performance
g) engaging the community in determining responsive and dynamic library service
h) behaving with integrity

i) holding all meetings in public unless closed for a special purpose within the framework of Section 16.1 of the Public Libraries Act.

Section 3: Duties of Individual Board Members

The library board expects its members to understand the extent of their authority and to use it appropriately. This policy sets out the obligations of individual board members. While an individual board member has several responsibilities, outside of a meeting of the library board he or she has no authority to make decisions.

Each board member is expected to become a productive participant in exercising the duties of the board as a whole.

1) Individual members of the library board are responsible for exercising a Duty of Diligence as follows:

   a) be informed of legislation under which the library exists, board bylaws, mission, vision and values
   b) be informed about the activities of the library and the community and issues that affect the library
   c) be prepared for all board meetings, and
   d) attend board meetings regularly, contribute from personal and professional experience, and use meeting time productively

2) Individual members of the library board are responsible for exercising a Duty of Loyalty, as follows:

   a) adhere to the regulations of the Municipal Conflict of Interest Act. R.S.O. 1990, c. M50
   b) act in the interest of the library members and community over and above other interest group involvement, membership on other boards, council or personal interest
   c) speak with “one voice” once a decision is reached and a resolution is passed by the library board
   d) represent the library positively to the community

3) Individual members of the library board are responsible for exercising a Duty of Care, as follows:

   a) promote a high level of library service
   b) consider information gathered in preparation for decision making

c) offer personal perspective and opinions on issues that are subject to library board discussion and decisions
d) show respect for the opinions of others
e) assume no authority to make decisions outside of board meetings
f) know and respect the distinction in the roles of the library board regarding governance and the employees, management and operations
g) refrain from individually directing the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and the employees
h) respect the confidential nature of library service to users while being aware of, and in compliance with, applicable laws governing freedom of information
i) resist censorship of library materials by groups or individuals

Board members will review and follow the Wasaga Beach Public Library Board Code of Conduct (see Appendix A)

Section 4 – Duties of Board Committees

The library board may use committees to further its work. These may be a standing committee or an ad hoc that is set for a specific purpose and time frame.

1) The library board shall establish written terms of reference and specific duties for each board committee, so that each member understands the work of said committee.

2) Committees report directly to the library board and have no authority other than to research a topic, draft recommendations or prepare alternatives for the library board's consideration and possible adoption.

3) Under the Public Libraries Act (Section 16.1), all meetings including regular, special, committee or other meetings of the library board must be open to the public. By definition, a committee means any advisory or other committee, sub-committee, or similar entity of which at least 50 per cent of the members are also members of the library board. This point applies to both standing or ad hoc committees.

4) Meetings of the committee may be called by the chair or by a majority of the members of a committee.

5) Committees shall not supervise or direct employees.

Appendix A: Board Code of Conduct

Within the framework of the Wasaga Beach Public Library Policy GOV-01, it is the duty of library board members to maintain high ethical standards. This commitment includes the proper use of authority, appropriate decorum in group and individual behavior and respect for others and their contributions to the library. As such:

Respect

Within the framework of the legislative and policy requirements of the Ontario Human Rights Code, and the Workplace Harassment and Discrimination and the Prevention of Workplace Violence Policies, members will fulfill their responsibilities in ensuring that the Library is free from discrimination and harassment. No member shall:

a) Speak disrespectfully of any member of the Board, staff or volunteers.
b) Use offensive words in meetings of the Board or against any member.
c) Speak in a manner that is discriminatory in nature based on an individual's age, colour, ancestry, race, citizenship, ethnic origin, place of origin, creed, disability, family status, marital status, gender identity/expression, sex, or sexual orientation.

Board meetings

With the understanding that Library Board meetings are public and that their behavior affects the image of the Wasaga Beach Library, Board members shall:

a) Not speak on any subject other than the subject in debate.
b) Not disobey the decision of the Chair or of the Board on questions of order or procedure or upon the interpretation of the rules of the Board
